You are making it impossible to properly file in my required files, in the need for expedience, to comply with your self-determined time frame.

Furthermore, you will confuse, and therefore get less attention from the ARDC because of the normal human tendency to skip over what cannot be properly categorized and mentally absorbed.

Please restate your cover letter into 3 separate ARDC Complaints and when the facts overlap, refer to page and line numbers where an interested reader can go to to ascertain how different players actions worked with each others' actions and how different players actions combined to damage you.

Please create separate road maps with the main concern communication and understanding, not speed of filing.

Please use the pronouns me and I not we and us unless Mr. Kost is joining in and is willing to also sign and certify as needed.
