Dear Paul,

Attorney-Client Privilege:

We waived attorney-client privilege as to the underlying case, meaning the original case that you filed against the McGuires and Gagnon. I did not waive any attorney client privilege as to the current case against Thomas Popovich firm and Mast—17 LA 377—which would be between you and Attorney Gooch/his firm or you and our firm. I maintained an objection in the deposition as to any communications between you and Attorney Gooch.

I did provide Attorney Gooch's retainer contract in the last set of documents as I do not believe that is actually privileged. It is not intended to provide advice or confer confidential information.

Communication with Gooch:

I did not receive from you or Attorney Gooch any emails or communication between you and Mr. Gooch. I received Attorney Gooch's file, but his file did not include any communication between him and you.

I did receive from you and Attorney Gooch emails and communications between you and your counsel in the underlying case, which was produced with the documents.

You are only required to produce documents in your possession or control, so if you didn't take notes on a conversation then there would be no documents.

You have received all of the discovery that we produced on your behalf to the other side.

Best Regards,

Julia Williams

Hi Julia,

Thank you for getting this extended.

I'm pulling from memory here because I had a Dr's appointment today and am away from my desk

I just took your July 2 email and reviewed it.

I didn't collect the documents because I thought I had already turned over all the gooch files and emails to you and I thought we waived privilege for Boudin and you have all of that as well.

I suppose other than the last request asking for "documents" relating to a conversation between Baudin and myself when we were leaving the ADR the rest of this would be contingent on Judge Meyers decision of the objections over Gooch questioning that were raised during my deposition.

I'm still not sure how I'm supposed to have documents from a verbal conversation with Baudin.

I will look at all this again when I get home.

Thanks again,

Paul
