That's 2 out of 3 of the Judges assigned to the appellate panel in our case with issues.

We have no record of which Judge voted which way. McLaren may have been outvoted.

Watch the panel claim since we used McLaren's quote we knew who was assigned the case.

By dumb luck, you hit it dead on with the quote by McLaren.

How do we proceed?

Dear Mr. Dulberg,

You have an issue with Trial Court Judge Hutchinson entering a dismissal as Appellate court Justice.

I have an issue with Appellate Court Justice McLaren entering a dismissal as Appellate Court Justice while ignoring that he had a stated opinion in a recent Appellate Court decision that I quoted in our motion that was totally ignored.

Sincerely,

Alphonse A. Talarico Esq.

Dear Mr Talarico,

Thank you.

Knowing that you learned it the same way I did is a huge relief.

I believe that I can make the argument that the Judges names were actively concealed from us. Who in this country doesn't get to know the name of the Judge/s that will be deciding the issues before them?

By concealing the names of the judges assigned to the appeal, the appellate court deprived us of the same rights everyone else enjoys that goes to court, the right to ask for a substitution of Judge before any major decisions are made.

Of coarse any legal advise you have on the issue and how to move on it is always welcomed and appreciated.

Thank you again,
Paul

Dear Mr Talarico,

As you should know, I did inform you about Judge Hutchinson before during and after we filed the appeal in the Popovich case.

Obviously I would have asked for a substitution of Judge had I been informed Hutchinson was assigned to the panel.

I first learned of Hutchinson's involvement in the final court order dated December 4, 2023.

I need to know in writing and with supporting documentation the first time you were informed by the court which Judges were assigned to the appeal.

Thank You,
Paul
