Case No. 11DV-324

CLARIFICATION OF ORDER OF ADJUDICATION OF INDIRECT CIVIL CONTEMPT

This cause was heard on Plaintiff/Petitioner Wife's petition for a finding of indirect civil contempt for failure to pay temporary attorney's fees, the court having previously heard testimony and evidence, given Defendant/Respondent Husband the opportunity to make a statement in allocution, and having re-considered all relevant pleadings and arguments of counsel, and having reconsidered its orders of May 14 and 24, 2012, and now being fully advised:

THE COURT MAKES ADDITIONAL FINDINGS AS FOLLOWS:

1. This court has not and is not requiring Husband to liquidate any IRA funds to pay the award of temporary attorneys' fees contained in its order of February 16, 2012.
2. The court has considered and bases its findings on Husband's ability to pay the ordered interim fees without considering the liquidation of assets exempted pursuant to Section 12-1006 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure.
3. The Court has noted the size of Husband's IRA and exempt assets only for the purposes of possible future division of marital assets or liquidation to pay judgments for support orders.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED

All findings and orders of the court contained in the court's order of May 24, 2012 not in conflict with the above remain in full force.
