Hi Karen,

On Feb 19, you acted as the court reporter for the deposition of Paul Dulberg in the case of Mast v Dulberg. We waived signature, but ordered the transcript. I haven't seen an email come through that it was ready so I am checking in. Many things are going in to my spam so I am just reaching out. If there is a fee (which I am sure there is), please send an invoice asap as we will pay it so as to not get it lost in the costs of the case.

Please note that we will be working remotely so email is best, but my cell number is below as well.

Thanks,

Julia Williams

Hi Julia

My production department's response below:

"This was sent to Julia Williams on March 5th at 3:50 pm."

They resent it to you again. Let me know if you still can't seem to locate it. They confirmed it was sent to this email address you just sent me.

Thank you!

I got it just now. I am guessing it went to spam or something—that has been a problem recently. I appreciate your help.

I hope you are well—stay safe.
