Hi Julia,

First I wish to thank you for yesterday.

Second, I remember some things that I couldn't yesterday. Particularly when it came to how many attorneys I hired in my life.

This morning my Mom reminded me of two others

First is an attorney I had to hire named Charles Reilly in McHenry for a charge stemming from a traffic incident with the state police where I was a passenger. All charges against me were dropped the first day I appeared in court. Best that I can recollect, this happened sometime in the late 90's or early 2000's

The Second attorney, Whom I can't remember the name of but it was a traffic ticket at Biesterfield rd and Rt 53 and the first day in court I think it was thrown out. This happened in the mid 90's.

I'm sure after I get to read the deposition I will see more things.

Yesterday My brain went to mush later in the afternoon.

I was trying to remember things but was pulling blanks and several times I had to have the defense restate the questions.

Thats the medication I'm taking for the right arm, it does that.

Don't know if you remember but a few times I tried to say to you I'm getting tired and towards the end when I think he was asking about gooch I just said it loud. lol

I wish we had done it in the morning when I am typically sharper and last longer.

Anyway, I'm glad it's done.

So what's the schedule

When should we expect copies?

And

When is the mast deposition?

Thank you again for yesterday,

Paul
